"Beefsteak" Harrison, the widely known hotelkeeper of Springville, Utah is gaining some of the notoriety to which he is entitled on his present trip to the coast over the new Salt Lake route. He was one of the old-time freighters who followed the trail back and forth between Salt Lake and San Bernardino in the days when all the country between here and there was a howling wilderness. Mr. Harrison was in San Bernardino in the past week, and the Times-Index of that city has the country between here and there was a howling wilderness.
